

REMARKS

The foregoing amendment of the specification supplies a claim of priority under 35 USC 119(e) for the above-referenced utility application.

This claim of priority is proper since this amendment containing the specific reference to the earlier filed provisional application is submitted during the pendency of the priority application. Upon entry of this amendment and claim of priority, the present application is entitled to the benefit of the earlier filed provisional application (Serial Number 60/479,594).

Applicants respectfully request consideration of the application in view of the foregoing amendments and the foregoing remarks.

CONCLUSION

The Examiner is respectfully invited to contact Samuel B. Rollins at 336.607.7432 to discuss any matter relating to this application.

Respectfully requested,

Date: Jan 12, 2004

Samuel B. Rollins
